Microsoft Partner Code of Conduct

Microsoft aspires to be more than just a good company – we want to be a great company. We are committed to our mission of empowering every person and every organization on the planet to achieve more. Achieving our mission isn’t just about building innovative technology. Our mission reflects who we are as a company, how we manage our business internally, and how we work externally with customers, partners, governments, and suppliers.

Microsoft Values & Expectations

Microsoft partners and their employees, agents, and subcontractors (collectively referred to as “Partners”), in collaboration with Microsoft, serve our customers. It is important for Microsoft that Partners embrace and continually improve on the Microsoft values. While conducting business with Microsoft customers, Microsoft expects its Partners to commit to operating in full compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, and to adhere to the principles outlined in this Partner Code of Conduct.

Microsoft’s values are the foundation of our success and reflect our continued commitment to ethical and responsible business practices. Our Standards of Business Conduct establishes our standards which help live our values and apply to all Microsoft employees, directors and officers. Our values include:

- Integrity & Honesty: It’s how we act when no one is looking and when the whole world is watching. It’s at the heart of our every interaction, deed, and decision. Integrity and honesty add up to trust. And when there is trust, anything is possible.
- Accountability: We make commitments every day, spoken and unspoken. Each instance is an opportunity to build credibility, partnership, and trust. We value accountability. It matters.
- Big Challenges: We have never picked the easy problems to solve. Our very existence was borne of the desire to innovate and bring the power of personal computing to everyone, everywhere. The bigger the challenge, the more grit, fortitude, courage, and optimism we apply.
- Passion: At Microsoft, our passion comes from our deep belief in the potential of human beings. We believe that our combined contributions have the power to change every person’s life for the better, for real. That’s what brings us to work every day.
- Open and Respectful: We listen and assume good intent in each other every day. It’s how we relate to each other and the world we live in, love in, and create in.

This Partner Code of Conduct is not intended to replace, supersede or conflict with any applicable law, regulation or contractual obligation with Microsoft.

Partners may report any issue related to this Code of Conduct, including any request by a Microsoft representative for Partners to act in a manner that conflicts with this Code of Conduct, by using any of the resources listed in Page 4.
Business Practices, Ethics and Compliance

While conducting business with Microsoft customers, Microsoft Partners will conduct their business practices and activities in accordance with applicable law, with integrity, respect and in an ethical manner.

- Anti-Corruption: Microsoft Partners will comply with all applicable anti-corruption and anti-money laundering laws. All forms of bribery, kickbacks and other corruption are prohibited. No Microsoft Partner will improperly influence any act or decision of any governmental official, employee or political candidate, including, without limitation, through the provision of any improper or unlawful gifts, meals, travel or entertainment.

- Fair Competition and Antitrust laws: Microsoft Partners will conduct their business in full compliance with all applicable fair competition and antitrust laws.

- Public Sector Procurements: When selling to public sector entities, Microsoft Partners will support fair and open competition by complying with all laws and regulations related to government procurement, tenders, and bids. Microsoft Partners will not conspire with other partners, including but not limited to, bid rigging, placing orders prior to tender finalization, price fixing, or other forms of collusion.

- Business Records and Accounting: The business records of Microsoft Partners will conform with applicable legal, accounting and regulatory requirements. Microsoft Partners will not place any orders for Microsoft technologies, products, support or services without the existence of a corresponding customer order or agreement.

- Technology Fraud: Microsoft Partners are prohibited from engaging in false or deceptive business practices, including any activities which may mislead customers or consumers. These prohibited practices include engaging in technology fraud and activities which may mislead seniors, children or other vulnerable consumers to purchase or subscribe for unneeded technical support or services. In order to better protect these vulnerable consumers, Microsoft Partners should also not engage in the “cold-calling” of such consumers for the purpose of engaging in any of those prohibited practices.

- Conflicts of Interest: Where a Microsoft Partner is advising a customer, especially a governmental customer, on the selection of products and/or services and has a fiduciary or contractual obligation to that customer, the Microsoft Partner will avoid engaging in business activities that constitutes or could create the appearance of a conflict of interest.

- Disclosure of Fees to Governmental and State Owned Entities: If required by law or under a contract, Microsoft Partners will disclose to the applicable governmental entity customer or state-owned entity customer, the potential fees, commissions or other compensation that Partner will receive from Microsoft in connection with the products or services being procured.

- Advertising and Marketing: Microsoft Partners’ advertising and marketing activities will be conducted truthfully, accurately and in accordance with applicable law, rules and regulations. Microsoft Partners must ensure that all communications to its customers be truthful, accurate, and not misleading.
Human Rights and Fair Labor Practices

Microsoft Partners will provide a safe and healthy work environment, fully compliant with all employment, health and safety laws.

- No Forced Labor; No Child Labor: Microsoft Partners will abide by local minimum wage and maximum working hour requirements, are not to use forced labor or to use labor contacts that impose unreasonable limitations on a worker’s ability to leave Partner’s employment. The use of child labor is prohibited.
- Non-Discrimination: Microsoft Partners will not illegally discriminate in hiring, compensation, access to training, promotion, termination and/or retirement decisions based on race, sex, national origin, religion, age, disability, gender identity or express, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, political affiliation, union membership or veteran status.

Environmental Regulations and Protections

Microsoft expects Microsoft’s Partners to share Microsoft’s commitment to the environment.

- Registrations; Permits: Microsoft Partners will comply with all applicable environmental laws and regulations, keep current all required environmental registrations and permits relevant to its businesses and implement appropriate conservation measures.

Intellectual Property and Protection of Information

Microsoft’s Partners will respect intellectual property rights, protect confidential information and comply with privacy rules and regulations.

- Legitimately Acquired Software: Microsoft Partners will only use information technology and software that has been legitimately acquired and licensed.
- Comply with Ownership Rights: Microsoft Partners will respect the intellectual property ownership rights of all third parties. Microsoft Partners will only use lawful methods of gathering competitive intelligence about products or manufacturers that compete with Microsoft technologies.

Governance

Microsoft’s Partners are expected to develop a culture of compliance with view for continuous improvement.

- Risk Management: Microsoft Partners will have applicable business controls to detect and prevent unlawful conduct by their employees and counterparties. These business controls should be adequately resourced and be periodically reviewed and updated to take into account the current risk environment.
• Training: Microsoft Partners will ensure that they have an adequate training program that achieves the appropriate levels of knowledge and skills to maintain compliance with applicable laws, regulations and standards.

• Assistance: Microsoft Partners will provide reasonable assistance to Microsoft in connection with any investigation of a violation of this Partner Code of Conduct or applicable law. Microsoft Partners will permit Microsoft reasonable access to all records and other applicable documentation concerning Partners’ compliance with this Partner Code of Conduct and applicable law.

Raising Concerns and Reporting Questionable Behavior

Partners are encouraged to work with their primary Microsoft contact in resolving a business practice or compliance concerns. However, Microsoft recognizes that there may be times when this is not possible or appropriate. In such instances, Microsoft Partners should report any concerns about violation of this policy or applicable laws to their legal department and/or their ethics and compliance officer. Microsoft Partners should also report to Microsoft through the following alternatives:

By Microsoft’s Business Conduct Hotline:

- (877) 320-MSFT within the U.S.; or if calling from outside the United States, you may make a collect call to the Hotline by accessing an international operator and asking to place a collect call to 1-720-904-6844.
- The Business Conduct Line is a dedicated, toll-free phone line that is available to you 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and 365 days a year.

By Microsoft email or web allegation tool:

- buscond@microsoft.com
- www.MicrosoftIntegrity.com

By mail or fax to the Director of Compliance at Microsoft Corporation:

- Send a letter at the following address: Office of Legal Compliance
  One Microsoft Way
  Redmond, WA 98052
- Send a fax to the following number: 1-425-708-7177